CALDWELL - WOOLDRIDGE WEDDING

The marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Wooldridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall H. Wooldridge to John Curtis Caldwell, Jr., son of Mr. Caldwell and the late Mrs. Bessie Harwood Caldwell, all of Appomattox, took place Saturday evening at eight o'clock in the Evergreen Baptist Church.

The Rev. Tearle P. Brown officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with magnolia greens and baskets of mixed white flowers. White tapers in branched candelabras provided a soft light.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Daniel Harvey at the piano and Mr. Caldwell, father of the groom, as soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace over candlelight silk peau de soia, fashioned with a scalloped bateau neckline, basque waist with long pointed sleeves. Her finger tip veil of French illusion was attached to a scalloped cap edged with pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid showered with stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Martin was maid of honor and wore a floor length dress of blue net over taffeta with matching picture hat. She carried a crescent bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

Other attendants were Miss Peggy Wooldridge, a cousin of the bride, wearing pink, and Miss Yvonne Ferguson, wearing pastel green, with dresses and hats fashioned similar to that of the maid of honor.

Hanmer Harwood, a cousin of the groom, served as junior bridesmaid. She wore a pale yellow dress fashioned to match the other attendants. She carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

William Harwood Caldwell was his brother's best man. Ushers were Cecil Wooldridge, a cousin of the bride, Frank Leigh Burke, Reginald Davis, and John Ivey Holland.

Mrs. Wooldridge chose for her daughter's wedding, a pink lace dress. Mrs. Alfred Rice Harwood, Sr., maternal grandmother of the groom, wore a blue crepe dress. Both wore orchids at the shoulder.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a beige plaid suit with matching accessories .At the shoulder she wore a white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of the Appomattox High School and the groom will enter his sophomore year at V. P .I. this fall.

Health and Beauty

Eye shadow has become one of the accepted cosmetics today. There was a time when it was considered a blight on a pretty face and "just not the sort of thing nice girls used." Fingernail polish went through the same stage.

The person who has never used eyeshadow will find it a help to experiment .Start with a dab and work up from there. The idea is to put a small amount of the eyeshadow on the lid just above the pupil of the eye, and then blend it out toward the temple.

The newer eyeshadow sticks make the technique easier than formerly. The sticks are thin and the consistency is smooth .Make a thin line along the upper lid with the stick. If you want it to appear lighter, smooth it with your finger.

Hurray: Radishes And Strawberries!

Hail to another successful Appomattox gardener! As we go to press today, Mr. E. LeRoy Smith brought to our office a perfectly shaped and fully ripe bunch of radishes, And to further establish his knewn reputation as a successful gardener, he brought along a strawberry from his patch! Mr. Smith always comes up, not only with early yields, but with an excellent seasonal garden. Thank you, sir, for remembering us!

Glad to report that Mr. G. L. Doss is already supplying us with spring onions from his outstanding vegetable garden.

Funeral Rites for T. W. Moses, Civic Leader Held Yesterday

Thomas Walker Moses, 85, died at the Memorial Hospital, Lynchburg, Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock, following a prolonged illness.

Mr. Moses had been long active in the civic, church, political and social life of Appomattox County. He retired from active business two years ago due to ill health. He and his son, State Senator Charles T. Moses, were granted the Chevrolet franchise here in 1919, and they successfully operated the automobile sales and service agency continuously since.

He was born in Appomattox County, the son of the late Charles Thomas and Mary Mollie Moses. He was married to the former Miss Clara Matilda Mann in 1896, by whom he is survived, along with one son, State Senator Charles T. Moses, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank C. Dresser, both of Appomattox; and two brothers, William A. Moses, and L. M. Moses, also of Appomattox; six grandchildren, and 18 great grandchildren.

Mr. Moses pioneered in the tobacco business here, where he operated a warehouse and represented many large tobacco concerns as a buyer and operator on the Virginia and North Carolina markets.

Mr. Moses was one of the oldest office holders from the standpoint of age and service in this county, having served as a Justice of the Peace since 1909.

Mr. Moses served for over 50 years as a Steward in the Memorial Methodist Church. He served as the Treasurer of the Church School for a number of years, as well as on the Church Board of Trustees.

He was a Director of The Farmers National Bank, and was Director of the first Red Cross Drive conducted in this county. He was a past member of the Appomattox Lions Club.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 4:00 P .M., from the Memorial Methodist Church. The services were conducted by the Rev. Richard A. Bergdoll, pastor, and Dr. Twyman Williams and the Rev. J. T. Cravens. Active pallbearers were Sam L. Ferguson, John Harvey, Burke Guill, Walker Walton, M J. House, J. R. Blackwell Jr., H. B. Martin and A. B. Carson. Interment was in Liberty Cemetery.
